Sir:

PETITION FOR CONSIDERATION OF INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Applicant requests that the attached Information Disclosure Statement, submitted after final rejection, be entered in the above-referenced application.

The present Information Disclosure Statement contains two references. The first, a data sheet made available by the Bloomberg service, is not prior art to the present application and is submitted only for background information as to post-art developments related to the application. This sheet was not earlier submitted because it was not previously known that it might be of value to the Examiner. The second reference is an article published in April 1999 in Bloomberg magazine. This second reference was not previously submitted because it only became known to the Applicant within the last three months.
